NORTH WARREN SALESMAN IS FATALLY INJURED IN CRASH ON HILL NEAR ENTERPRISE

Titusville, (AP)—An auto-truck collision on Route 27, seven miles northeast of Titusville, yesterday killed B. F. Brecht, 66, a North Warren salesman, and injured four Oil City men.

The injured were taken to Titusville Hospital. Lawrence Archer, 33, driver of the stake-body truck, and Barney Foster, 41, a truck passenger, were treated and released. Detained were Jack Burt, 18, broken shoulder, and David Zuck, 19, possible skull fracture.

Burt and Zuck were riding in the back of the light truck when it collided head-on with Brecht's auto. Brecht was driving alone.

"LITTLE MOE" VISITOR IN WARREN DURING DAY

"Little Moe", prize performing elephant for the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey's Circus, is spending the afternoon in Warren.

He was brought here by his trainer, Ed Healy, arriving in front of the Times-Mirror office about 2:30. Plans were to have the elephant perform for State Hospital patients at the North Warren baseball diamond and also make an appearance at the Hoffman Home during the afternoon. "Little Moe" is due for a TV appearance in Erie at 6:30 o'clock.

Triple Slayer Is Shot Down By Patrolmen

Warren, Ohio (AP)—The violent death of triple slayer Alfred (Buck) Wilson has lifted the fear which clouded lives of residents in this northeastern Ohio area for 12 days.

But their wonder still remained—wonder at how the stuttering, 200-pound ex-convict eluded one of Ohio's greatest manhunters to roam within a few miles of his June 21 crimes.

Wilson himself never spoke to the state highway patrolmen who killed him. Clutching the Luger pistol he used to slay three women, he toppled from a tree, unconscious with two bullet holes in his brain and shotgun pellets in his arm.

He died five hours later in a hospital early last night. The 37-year-old truck driver did tell a little of his story to his (Turn to Page Seven)

Democratic Dispute To Be Aired July 10

Harrisburg (AP)—The Democratic state executive committee today fixed July 10 for hearings on the disputed election of county chairmen in Luzerne and Warren counties.

Sen. Joseph M. Barr, Democratic state chairman, set the date for hearings by the 33-member group.

Michael Papavero, Sheffield, former Warren County Democratic chairman, appealed the election of Thomas Conway, Warren, to succeed him.

Papavero submitted the appeal on the contention that Conway lacked qualifications to be chairman.

Famous Comments on Uncle Sam on His 180th Birthday

By HAL BOYLE
New York (AP)—The American Republic is 180 years old tomorrow.

From the day of its founding until the very present, the United States has stirred endless controversy in the world.

Just what is America? Just what is an American? What do they stand for?

Over the years our government and people have collected a lot of verbal bouquets and brickbats, both from native and foreign sources. The one thing that has remained true—since independence was first proclaimed in this land—the rest of the world has been anything but indifferent to us.

To refresh your memory, here are a few famous comments on Uncle Sam and his family ways: "Driven from every other corner of the earth, freedom of thought and the right of private judgment in matters of conscience

Regarding the accident, the Titusville Herald says:

A car and truck smashed together on Route 27 near Enterprise, Warren County, just before 5 p. m. yesterday. The car driver, B. F. Brecht, 66, of North Warren, was killed. Four Oil City vicinity men on the truck were injured.

The impact tossed the truck an estimated 20 feet through the air and it landed upside down. The rear dual wheels were torn loose and rolled 45 feet away.

Gouging out the door post of the car and tearing away part of the auto body, the fat bed of the truck apparently hit the driver.

Two men riding on the back of the truck were thrown through the air. In fair condition in the Titusville Hospital. They are:

David Zuck, 19, of Oil City. He suffered a possible skull fracture. Part of his scalp was peeled back, his left shoulder was bruised and he suffered contusions when he fell on the pavement and skidded;

Jack Eugene Burt, 18, of Oil City, RD 1. Young Burt suffered a possible fractured left clavicle, an injury to his right knee and leg abrasions.

In the cab of the truck were: Lawrence Archer, 30, of Oil City, Mounted Route 4, the driver. He was treated at the Titusville Hospital for shoulder cuts and bruises;

Bernard Foster, 41, of Oil City, RD 1, who had a cut right hand and other lacerations.

State Trooper J. R. Krupcy of Warren said the accident occurred about half way down the Enterprise Hill. The truck was going down to the south, the car was coming up. Both vehicles landed in the west ditch.

Dr. C. M. Sonne of Titusville, Crawford County deputy coroner, said Mr. Brecht died of a fractured skull. He also had a deep gouge in the side of his neck in the vicinity of the jugular vein, fractures of the upper and lower jaws and extreme injury to the left eye.

Trooper Krupcy said he is continuing his investigation into how the accident occurred. He talked only briefly with Mr. Burt, who was still dazed. The youth said he was riding in the back of the stake body truck when he heard the truck driver blow his horn. When he looked out over the cab, (Turn to Page Seven)

Infantry Tank Here for Parade

One of the features of the Gala Jaycee Fourth of July Celebration will be the parade appearance of this 35-ton light tank from the 12th Infantry in Erie. In the evening, the metal monster sporting a .76 millimeter canon will help the Marines clear a bunker on Beaty Field in simulated combat. Signs boost enlistments for National Guard Camp, Aug. 12-26. Young lad contemplating a later enlistment is Gene Madden, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Madden, 814 Pennsylvania avenue, west.

Nice Letter From a Patient Subscriber

To the Editor:

You never miss the water until the well runs dry. Last evening so many people were upset on account of some breakage in the presses which caused a delay in the evening edition. The writer gave some thought as to the value of our total paper and what it means to Warren and vicinity. What would we do without it? I wonder the writer of this story is not obliged to advertise in out of town papers—Times-Mirror does the trick.

B. G. Kofod

Editor's Note: As a matter of fact the delay in distribution of the Monday issue was caused by an accident to the large press, when pins on the drive shaft were sheared after the folder became jammed. It was about six o'clock before repairs were made and the press started rolling. We hope it won't happen again too soon, and appreciate very much the patience displayed by subscribers generally.

Erie Tavern Owner Murdered by Man He Long Befriended

Erie (AP)—Joseph Seyas, 51, owner of an Erie tavern, was shot and killed early today by a man who police said Seyas housed and fed for 14 years.

James Shannon, an off-duty patrolman who witnessed the shooting, identified the assailant as 64-year-old Vincent Dembrowski.

Shannon gave this version: "Dembrowski entered the tavern about 12:30 a. m. through a side door carrying a .12 gauge shotgun. He offered a sell the gun to any of the patrons.

"Seyas walked towards Dembrowski and asked for the gun. 'Here it is,' Dembrowski shouted, and fired at close range, the pumpkin ball pellet striking Seyas in the left chest."

Shannon leaped at Dembrowski and disarmed him after a brief struggle and telephoned authorities. Dembrowski, given a medical examination, was pronounced under the influence of liquor.

IRE SWINGING CLUBS

Gettysburg (AP)—President Eisenhower chafed up another "first" today. He got out on his putting green and took about 20 practice shots—the first golf he has had since his operation. This physical activity came during a morning in which he also put in some ticks at White House paper work. He conferred for an hour with his staff and signed nine bills received from Congress. One bill provides for paying the Vatican $964,199 for accidental bombing damage inflicted by U. S. airmen on church property at the summer retreat of Pope Pius XII, Castelgondolfo, in World War II.

Market Value of Real Estate In Borough Set at $37,419,700 School Directors Are Informed

Warren Borough School Board heard at its meeting last night that the market value of real estate for the 1957-1958 term had been set at $37,419,700 by the state tax equalization board.

The figure is used to compute the amount of reimbursements of state funds. In 1955 the assessable evaluation figure on the market value was pegged at 38.9 percent.

Most of the remainder of the meeting dealt with final computations and payments of year end school bills.

Monthly bills of $4,674 were approved, with the largest single being $1,090 for the tax collection bond and $900 for library service.

In the summary of National School Lunch Program and Special School Milk Program presented to board members, it was revealed the total income during the year was $63,285, and expenditures amounted to $60,055, leaving a cash reserve operating fund of $3,230. Last year the cash amount was $525 but the food inventory was higher.

Biggest cafeteria was maintained at Beaty which served about 500 meals each school day and took in $29,695 from lunches which cost an average of 30 cents each. Beaty net cafeteria profit, after national subsidy of $4,356 and special school milk subsidy of $2,855, amounted to $2,946 of the total.

It was also reported that a general appropriation of $92,541 had been received from the state which was now in arrears of only about $75,000. However, school superintendent Dr. Carl E. Whipple, reported the school system to be in good shape financially.

Both Dr. Whipple and Jerry Newton, director of instruction, were granted permission to attend numerous meetings and conferences during the next school year. Boiler insurance was upped from $10,000 to $25,000.

On the recommendation of the building and grounds committee, members voted to accept a bid for soft coal of $5.69 a ton from Don Vicini of Clarendon. Also voted was a sum of $464 for straw, $112 for napkins and $296 (plus trade-in) for a new motion picture machine.

It was also noted and approved that $247 be paid the state for local boys in industrial schools. A figure of $2,022 was approved for special services, most of the sum paid to playground supervisors for June.

Bill Providing Planning Fund for Dam Is Signed

Gettysburg (AP)—President Eisenhower today signed a bill making available some 15 million dollars for flood control and navigation projects in Pennsylvania for the year which started July 1.

Included in the bill—the Public Works Appropriation—was the following "planning fund" for the proposed flood control dam on the Allegheny between Warren and Kinzua: Allegheny River Reservoir near Warren, $384,000; Allentown, $70,000; Bethlehem, $90,000; and Kettle Creek Dam on the West Branch of the Susquehanna River, $95,000.

New Effort Is Made To Reach Plane Wreck

Grand Canyon, Ariz. (AP)—A new attempt was made today to reach the wreckage of a United Air Lines plane, one of two that crashed into the Grand Canyon three days ago carrying 123 persons to death.

Recovery crews, meanwhile, completed their work at the grisly site where a TWA Super Constellation lay shattered on a canyon butte.

The recovery work continued under dangerous and difficult conditions as pressure mounted to find the cause of the disaster, presumed to have been a collision in flight. It was the worst accident in the history of commercial aviation.

The crews flew out a total of 26 olive drab colored, rubber bags containing the remains of the 70 persons aboard the TWA plane when it crashed.

Helicopters landed on a sandbar in the Colorado river at the base of a sheer cliff below the spot where the UAL DC7 hit. Experienced mountaineers were trying to make the 1,000 foot climb to the main part of the wreckage.

Two sacks of remains were found at the base of the cliff and were being flown out.

All the remains are being taken to Flagstaff for possible identification.

A group of 10 UAL men from Denver, described as experienced mountaineers, were among those working in the gorge today. They were veterans of the Medicine Bow crash Oct. 6, 1955, near Laramie, (Turn to Page Seven)

Jaycees Report Everything In Readiness for Thrill-Packed Independence Day Observance

Thousands of residents of the borough and surrounding communities are anticipating another thrill-packed Independence Day celebration tomorrow, with members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce again sponsoring the observance, which according to the program will be appropriately in keeping with those that have been staged by the organization during the past seven or eight years.

The usual crowd of 30 to 40 thousand spectators is expected to line Pennsylvania avenue from Union street to Conewango avenue to view the huge Fourth of July parade which will move promptly at 11 a. m. Every detail has been completed to make this a grand and glorious program.

The Jaycees have been working untiringly for weeks on every detail of this gigantic celebration, and the promise of favorable weather gives assurance that nothing will be missing in the program, which opens with a street dance at the Nu-Way parking lot at 9:00 tonight in honor of Celebration Queen Betty Ann Pasquino and her court.

Organizations which will have floods in the mammoth parade tomorrow morning were busy today putting the finishing touches on what will be some of the finest ever seen here. The parade feature alone should repay those who come here for the day.

Signal salutes fired over the borough at War Memorial Field will awaken the residents at 6:00 o'clock tomorrow morning. From then until midnight, there will be a full schedule of events.

A bomb at 11 o'clock will be fired at Union street to signal the start of the parade; one at 2:00 o'clock will be fired at War Memorial Field and one will be fired at 7:00 at Beaty Field.

Visiting delegations will be welcomed from 7:00 to 9:00 a. m. and at 10 o'clock the formation of the parade will be started at Union and Fourth avenue, facing east.

The parade, which promises to be one of the finest ever seen here, will start promptly at 11 o'clock. It was stated today there will be at least 30 to 40 floats in the parade, all of which will be very attractive. It has been estimated that it will be nearly two miles in length. A dozen musical organizations and hundreds of marchers will help to increase the size of the procession.

A complete program of the day's events appears on Page 12 of this issue. In another section of the paper are the parade orders and instructions on Page 3 to those who are participating in the day's program. All those who are helping on the parade and other events are requested to read the orders carefully and to be prepared to cooperate in carrying out the program as arranged.

Motorists are again requested to remain off the streets designated in the parade orders for the line of march. A parking lot at the foot of Market street will open tomorrow at 9 a. m., with a nominal cost of 25 cents.

Chief of Police M. Evan has completed plans for thorough policing of the huge crowds that will be in town for the morning, afternoon and evening events. Every effort will be made to provide safety for pedestrians and motorists who spend the day here.

Restaurants and confectionery stores which will remain open on the holiday are expecting to do a large amount of business, and are prepared to take care of the very large crowd anticipated.

Stores and places of business except eating places will be closed all day tomorrow. The state liquor store will also be closed tomorrow. (Turn to Page Seven)

Reminder For Parking Along Parade Route

We have been requested to print a reminder that parking will again be permitted on the north side of Pennsylvania avenue during the Fourth of July Parade, according to a joint statement Thursday morning from Chief of Police Mike Evan and the Jaycees parking committee.

However, it was stressed that no parking would be allowed on the Conewango avenue parade route or the south side of Pennsylvania avenue, the same parking set-up which existed last year.

Warren residents are asked to walk to the parade, if at all possible, to avoid traffic congestion and a Jaycee committee is hard at work figuring how best to utilize the parking area at the foot of Market street near Nu-Way Market. It was emphasized that carloads of spectators from outside Warren, if they arrive soon enough before the parade, would find ample parking space there.

No all-night parking on Pennsylvania avenue will be permitted before 6 a. m., according to Chief Evan, as street cleaners will be out to sweep the route.

Fair and Pleasant Weather Is Forecast For Pennsylvania

By The Associated Press
Fair, pleasant weather is in prospect for the entire state tomorrow, the U. S. Weather Bureau reported today.

A cooler July 4th is expected than last year's heat wave which hovered near the 100 degree mark in most areas of the eastern United States.

The Weather Bureau said the temperatures tomorrow will range from the low 50s in the north and west parts of the state to the low 60s in the southeast. The thermometer is expected to rise to the mid 70s in the north and the mid 80s in the southern part of the state.

Meanwhile, a moderate rise in hanna River is expected following the West Branch of the Susquehanna overnight rains. There will be little change in the North Branch, though, the bureau said.

The federal flood forecasting service said the West Branch would reach flood stage at Clearfield, or a little higher, today, as a result of heavy rains in that area.

Thunderstorms moved into the state last night with a dazzling display of lightning and noisy bursts of thunder.

Although gusty winds accompanied the storms in many areas, only slight damage was reported and there were no injuries known. The mercury in many sections of the state was dropped by storms from afternoon highs in the mid 90s.

Tragedy Stalks Reunion Of Displaced Families

Erie (AP)—A reunion of the Gayday and Grusha families, who met while confined to a displaced persons camp in Germany, ended tragically yesterday with the drowning of 12-year-old Natasha Gayday.

Natasha was swimming in a pond on the Andrew Grusha farm near Erie when she disappeared in 10 feet of water. Her body was recovered a short time later.

Mr. and Mrs. Grusha and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Gayday, natives of the Ukraine, were friends in the DP camp before the Gaydays moved to Fort Wayne, Ind., in 1948. The Grushas came to the U. S. shortly afterwards and settled near Erie.

Jaycees Announce Inspection Dates for the Soap Box Derby

Ralph Anschuetz, chairman of the registration and inspections committee, announces the inspection dates for the Warren Soap Box Derby racers will be July 10-11 at Beaty Junior High School. All contestants for the Warren Soap Box Derby, which will be held July 21 under the sponsorship of the Warren Times-Mirror, Dan's Chevrolet and the Jaycees, will be informed by mail as to the specific day each is to present his car for inspection.

The committee has set the inspection date for this time to enable contestants, whose racers fall to meet inspection requirements, sufficient time and opportunity to make the necessary alterations in order to be eligible for competition on Soap Box Derby Day.

It is suggested the boys, in order to have their racers completed and ready for inspection, check

IMPACT FROM STEEL STRIKE FAR-REACHING

Pittsburgh, (AP)—Railroads and other freight haulers felt the growing impact of the nationwide steel strike today as negotiators for the United Steelworkers and the basic steel industry marked time awaiting talks with the government's chief labor mediator.

The Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio railroads posted furlough notices yesterday affecting some 23,000 workers. It was indicated more unemployment would follow if the strike continues.

The railroads, dependent on the steel industry for much of their business, were forced to cut operations sharply following the walkout of 650,000 steelworkers at midnight Saturday.

Even as the layoffs were announced, Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation Service, arranged to meet separately here Thursday with USW and steel industry leaders.

Finnegan described the scheduled session as exploratory, and said they will be for the "purpose of discussing the real differences between the union and the industry representatives."

Philadelphia, (AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad announced today "extensive layoffs will be required for the duration of the steel strike."

PRR President James M. Symes said the layoffs on the railroad will be necessary "to reduce expenses, partially offsetting the sudden drop in revenues which started affecting our business a week ago."

New York, (AP)—Iron Age, national metalworking weekly, took a dim view today of prospects for an early settlement of the nationwide steel strike.

"There is nothing to suggest an early end to the strike," the magazine said. "The walkout could easily run to eight weeks or more."

The shutdown is costing the nation 2,100,000 tons of steel ingots a week, the magazine said. Ninety per cent of the nation's steel production has been stopped by the walkout of 650,000 members of the United Steelworkers.

Safety Council Says Toll May Reach 130

Chicago (AP)—Traffic accidents may kill 130 persons over the Fourth of July holiday, the National Safety Council estimates.

The council and the International Association of Chiefs of Police said that rigid law enforcement could help hold the toll to no more than 80, the normal toll for a Wednesday in early July.

The estimate of 130 deaths is for the 30-hour period from 6 p. m. local time today to midnight tomorrow. It includes only the deaths that occur between those hours and not those who die later from their injuries.

On Memorial Day, also on a Wednesday, there were 109 traffic deaths. An Associated Press survey, taken for comparative purposes, showed that on a non-holiday period, from 6 p. m., June 19 to midnight June 20, there were 66 traffic deaths.

The Heritage of July 4, 1776

Each July Fourth, the American people celebrate, not only their country's birthday but a vital day in the history of man. On this day, in 1776, a great document of freedom was officially born, the Declaration of Independence.

Drawings and paintings from earlier times, here illustrate just what happened.

TOP: The day of glory. The Continental Congress, meeting in Philadelphia, formally adopted a declaration that separated the colonies from England.

CENTER: The fighting which had begun at Lexington and Concord in 1775, flared up and down the eastern coast.

BOTTOM: The struggle lasted until Oct. 19, 1781 when a surrender was signed at Yorktown, Va. General Cornwallis' sword was delivered by a fellow officer, General O'Hara.

Drive Safely and Back Police In Their Crackdown to Reduce Traffic Deaths Over Holiday

Chicago—Drive safely yourself, and back the police in a crackdown on the reckless driver.

That advice was given motorists today by the National Safety Council, which, with the International Association of Chiefs of Police, is urging strict enforcement of traffic laws over the Fourth of July.

With traffic deaths up 10 percent so far this year and a new all-time high record threatening, there is a real traffic safety emergency, the Council said.

The death toll on Memorial day, also a one-day holiday, was 56 percent higher than for a normal Wednesday at that time of year. Unless enforcement and driver caution are stepped up, traffic deaths over the Fourth will exceed the Memorial day toll, the Council predicted.

"Most drivers are decent, law-abiding citizens, whose only traffic faults are inattention, thoughtlessness or ineptitude," said Ned

H. Dearborn, Council president, "but the speeder, the show-off and the drinking driver are potential murderers—and they should be treated like any other criminal."

"You hear people moan about 'unfair' tactics of police in tripping up speeders, drunks and other traffic offenders. What's unfair about it?"

"Is traffic enforcement a friendly game between police and would-be killers, to be played according to sporting rules?" Dearborn asked.

"Let the police hide behind billboards. Let them take the red flashers off their cars. Let them use plain automobiles. Do police notify a burglar that they're waiting in the store to catch him when he breaks in?"

"The time has come when it not only is advisable but necessary for traffic police to use every legal and legitimate tactic to make our highways safer. No enforcement can be too tough if we are to make a real dent in a traffic toll that already is a disgrace to a civilized nation."

The Council also warned the public against other Fourth of July tragedies, which last year killed 805 persons. Traffic took 407 lives, drownings 251 and miscellaneous accidents 146. Only one death was caused by fireworks.

MEANING OF INDEPENDENCE

The springtime visit of Indonesia's President Sukarno was a sharp reminder to Americans that the ideals of freedom their forefathers fought for are still a beacon to liberty-loving peoples the world over.

Sukarno showed by his knowledgeable comment on America's revolutionary past that his own country's quest for liberty owed much to our example.

That example we ourselves celebrate each year on Independence Day. We are eternally proud, and we should be, that we had the courage and spirit to rise up and cast off the shackles of oppressive foreign rule.

But as we come upon that time again this year, we might remember that it was not simply national independence but individual independence we struggled to gain.

It is not just foreign dictation we are free of. We can countenance none within our borders either.

Our federal Constitution guarantees that there shall be none. And generally those guarantees have been well enforced. Any failures, however brief or small, are quickly noted by the many vigilant champions of our liberties at home.

Freedom and independence are more than principles to be declared and safeguarded. They are conditions of life — to be enjoyed to the fullest.

It is not enough that we CAN speak freely and live pretty much as we choose. To make our independence meaningful, we MUST do these things.

We must have the boldness to live according to our own lights, to employ our own special qualities and capacities in the way that to us seems most likely to prove fruitful.

We must not fear to be criticized for what we say or do. We must not fear to be different. The real richness of the free way of life lies in its variety. And this reward can only be had by a nation if its people insist on being different when that is their inclination.

There is no political tyranny here. But we want no economic or social tyranny either. We can tolerate no self-styled "all-seeing" groups which would tell us what we may safely think and feel and do if we would be accepted in American society.

The meaning of America's independence is that, within the limits necessary for the protection of us all, it allows us to make our own choices. If we would honor the men who died to give us this liberty, we must make those choices in the same courageous spirit they showed on the battlefield and in the council halls.

DON'T BE A COLD STATISTIC

The American Automobile Association, through the Warren County Motor Club suggests "Four Rules for a Safe Fourth" to the nation's 70,000,000 motorists, most of whom will take to the road for the holiday.

Dr. Quay A. McCune says the number of accidents during the holiday period could be drastically reduced if every motorist would remember and practice these rules:

Show all motorists and pedestrians the courtesy you would have them show you; obey the letter and the spirit of all traffic laws; don't try to drive too far or too fast on this one-day holiday, and if you must celebrate our Independence with alcoholic beverage, don't drive at all!

"Actually, the vast majority of drivers will drive safely and courteously without any special reminders," says Dr. McCune. "The fringe of lunatic drivers — the one in ten responsible for most traffic accidents — could easily join the safe-driving 90 per cent of the populace by the simple application of the golden rule of treating others as they would have others treat them."

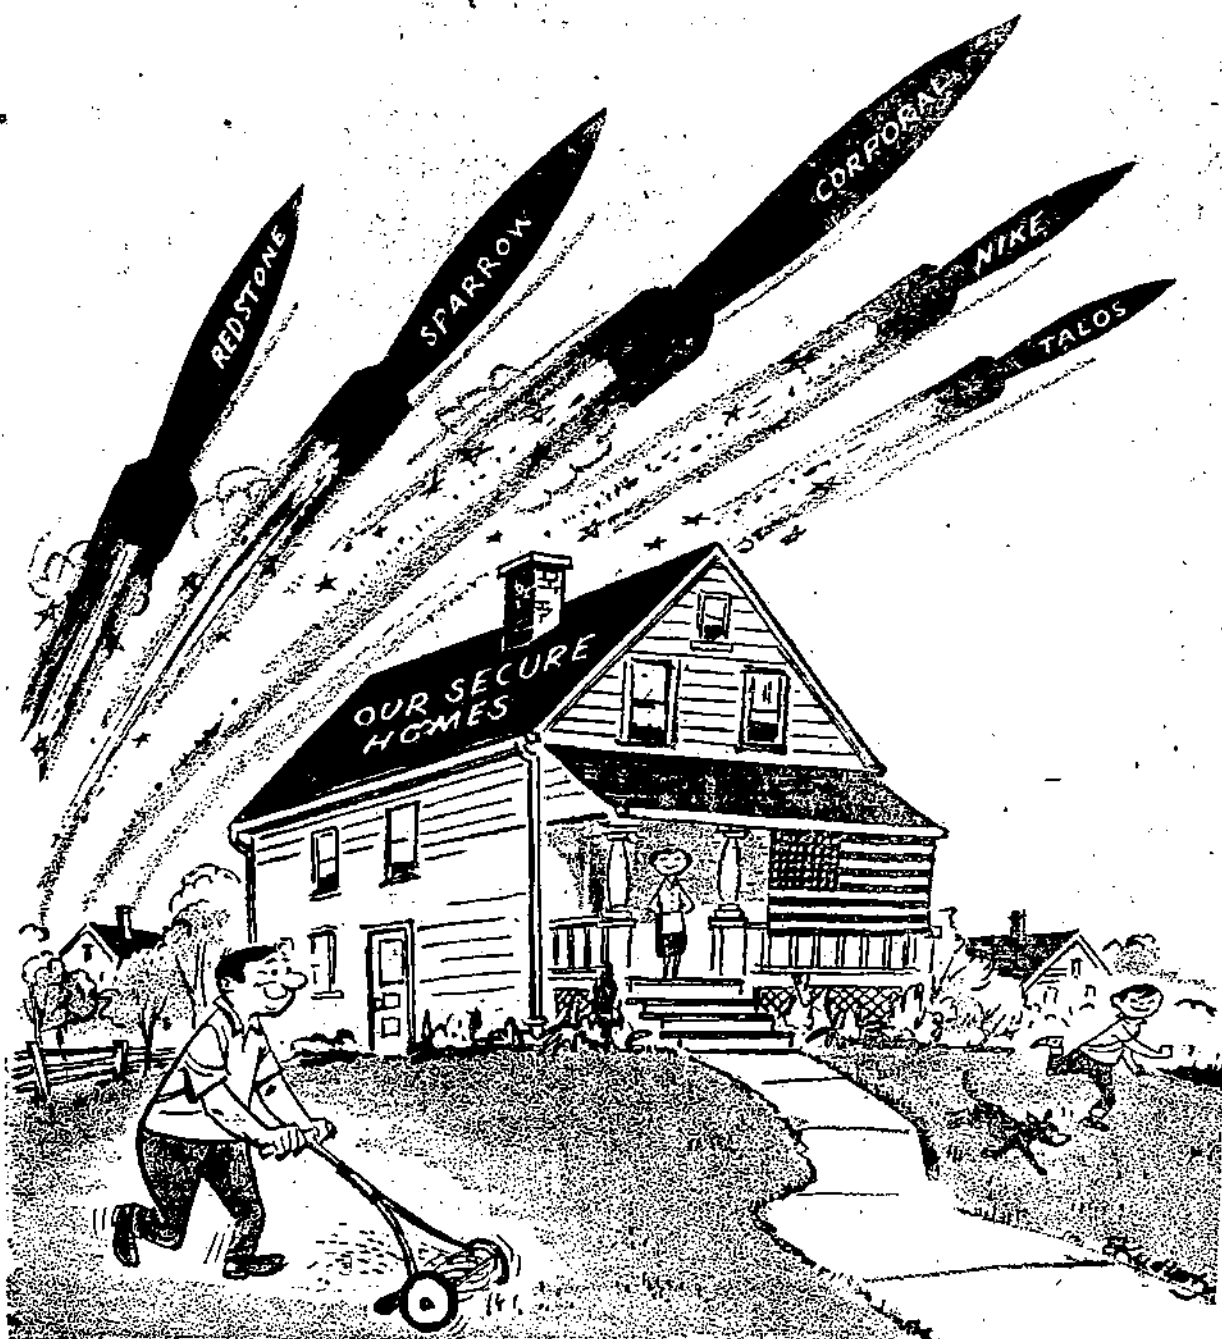

And we might add, as a clincher for use of extra caution "An estimated 130 persons will become cold statistics by the end of the holiday, according to the National Safety Council. The estimate is for the the thirty-hour period from six p. m. tonight to midnight Wednesday!"

SCENIC TOURS

The Chamber of Commerce has mailed 7,000 copies of "A Guide to Warren County Scenic Tours" to area residents through the cooperation of the Emblem Oil Company. The other 3,000 will be distributed by the Chamber office and will be available at stores and service stations.

Be sure and secure yours. You'll find it interesting!

HERE and THERE

Some pertinent notes from the files of The Evening Mirror of the Week of July 2, 1888: "No paper, no hotels, no celebration, no nothing in Warren tomorrow!" "The W. C. T. U. water tank has been placed in position at the Savings Bank corner!" "Warren will not celebrate the Fourth this year. There is not enough enthusiasm here to get up a single hurrah!" "A special train will leave Warren for Oil City over the W. N. Y. & P. at 7:50 a. m. on the Fourth—round trip, regular fare!" "There will be a balloon ascension at the J. Schur's grocery store tomorrow evening, don't fail to see it between the hours of seven and nine!" "According to the story of some of the boys they are having a good time with the new policeman; they can make him just as hideous as they please and he don't say a word!" "Excursion rates have been arranged from Warren to Titusville over the P. & E. road via Cory on the Fourth of July, returning will leave Titusville after the fireworks!" "A country woman visiting Warren today inquired if the humane borough authorities would open the lockup so as to afford a 'shady retreat where we can eat our lunch!'" "Yesterday a well-to-do and prominent oil operator with his wife and children arrived in Warren and took up their quarters at the Carver House, intending to stay several weeks, but last evening they were told they would have to hunt for other quarters as the hotel would be closed. They will probably make Kane their home. Thus respectable people are driven out of town and the prohibitionists are happy!" "One of our townspeople, seeing a large crowd at the hay scales this morning, inquired 'What is the excitement?' and being told that the platform to the public scales had broken through, explained (pointing to the Exchange Hotel which was being boarded up) that this is illustrative of the edict of a wise Judiciary, 'weighed in the balance and found wanting; buried in the grave of their own digging!'" "Work on the new spire at St. Joseph's Catholic church is progressing rapidly!" "Work on the new wall of the north end of the Suspension Bridge was commenced today!" "The proverbial Fourth of July rain storm put in an appearance about noon on the holiday!" "Mr. Will Mitchell carries his hand in a sling and, if reports are correct, the cause thereof, is too much Fourth of July powder!" "A skyrocket shot across the street last night struck the show window of Leonhart's harness shop and shattered the thick plate glass so thoroughly that it will have to be replaced by a new one!" "A spirited battle was fought last evening between the occupants of the Democratic seat on the river bank and the Republican neighbors on the other side of the street. A lively bombardment with Roman candles was kept up for about a half an hour!"

Tomorrow will be celebrated an event which will be remembered for all time to come by those who believe in America. It is fitting

★ GRAYSON'S SCOREBOARD ★

There's Money in Banks, Despite First Pitch Phobia

BY JIMMY BRESLIN, NEA Staff Correspondent
Pinch-hitting for Harry Grayson

NEW YORK—(NEA)—When Ernie Banks, the Chicago Cubs' thumper, was in the Negro leagues, he got into the habit of never swinging at the first pitch.

Banks now is in his third full season as a major leaguer, a top player in a game where fractions of an inch are fought over and where every little item is grabbed in the endless search for an edge on the other guy.

Yet Banks still steps into the box and remains motionless as that first pitch comes toward him. There isn't a National League pitcher who doesn't know this. When Banks is up, they try and pour that first one right down the pipe. Catch the plate and you're one-up. Banks won't swing.

This would seem, on paper, to be a sandlotish fault. The fact that it still is in Banks' repertoire makes it a felony against baseball, you'd think. Ty Cobb or Rogers Hornsby would have a few choice words on this flaw and today's major-league ballplayer in general.

IF BANKS WERE PLAYING 1929—or even 1939—type baseball, there would be reason to utter negative phrases on Banks and his playmates. The calendar, however, tells us that the year is 1956 and you let Banks take the first pitch for as long as he pleases. Banks hits home runs. He snapped his wrists and shot 40 balls out of the playing area last year. This season, he is off to his usual slow start, but indications are that he will be close or thereabouts to that 40 figure when the season ends.

This constitutes the cashier's window on the subject. The fine points of the game, those delicious bits of strategy the old-timers made their living on, have been discarded, along with roll-your-own tobacco, 2-1 final scores and 30-mile speed limits. The hit-and-run play, to illustrate, is something you see only now and then. A stolen base? Who steals when the next guy up can hit one out of the park?

Today, they hit the long ball. They go for it on every pitch, it seems. That's why a smart baseball man like Stan Hack, the Cubs' manager, won't open his mouth about Banks' flaw.

"If he likes to take the first pitch, that's okay with me," Hack says. "I wouldn't dare change his style. He has too much natural ability."

BANKS THOUGHT THEY would change him when he reached the majors. "I got into the habit early and I thought I'd better get out of it when I came to the Cubs," he says. "But nobody said a word. And I feel comfortable doing it. So I just keep taking."

It is the same everywhere. What manager would dare order Mickey Mantle to hit behind the runner? Men have been out of jobs for things like that.

Hank Greenberg, the Cleveland general manager, points this out. "Everybody hits homers today because everybody tries for them," he says.

"THE BALL OR THE BAT isn't making the home runs today. It's the attitude. And don't tell me it's the pitching. When I played, every pitcher had a good curve and a fast ball. Take Red Ruffing and Lefty Gomez of the Yankees. That's all they had."

Today the pitchers have that slider, a big pitch. They're better equipped. Today's pitching is the best it ever has been. But all batters go for the big one. Even your six, seven and eight men. That's why you see so many of them. And nobody will really care. Not as long as he can reach the seats.

And proper that the greatest free government should shut down for one day, and pay homage to those, who by their foresight and daring, made possible our freedom and liberty. Richard Henry Lee of Virginia was the first to voice the desire of the Thirteen Colonies for an Independent State. On June 7, 1776 his resolution which was read to the delegates in Congress stated that: "these colonies were and ought to be free and independent." Later, a committee consisting of Jefferson, Franklin, John Adams, Roger Sherman and Robert L. Livingston was appointed to draw up a formal declaration. The actual wording of the famous document was left to Jefferson. On July 4, 1776, the resolution was laid before Congress, then sitting in Philadelphia and was adopted with very few changes. The Declaration of Independence marks an epoch in the annals of progress. It signifies the everlasting struggle of mankind for freedom and brotherhood. All that people had ever hoped and prayed for, were declared to the world in this paper. In it was first declared that "all men are created equal" that they have a right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" that the right to rule is derived from "the consent of the governed." And to perpetuate and to forever establish this doctrine to the world, these noble men mutually pledged to each other, "their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor." Whether at the mountains or the shore, whether on the highway or sitting quietly at home, it is fitting that Americans should show with proper respect their devotion to those tenets which have "made and preserved us a nation."

Tumble weeds were first introduced into the United States in 1875 shipments of Russian flax seed.

MRS. GEORGE CHARLES MANI

On Saturday afternoon, June 30, Anne Lampe Crossett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Crossett, 106 Fourth avenue, became the bride of Dr. George Charles Mani, son of Mrs. Anastasia Mani of Brooklyn, N. Y., in a four o'clock ceremony which took place in Trinity Memorial church.

The impressive Greek Orthodox service was conducted by the Rev. Father John Palis of Buffalo, assisted by the Rev. Beecher Rutledge. The altar was decorated with vases of white gladioli and peonies and the chancel rail was banked with greens.

Preceding the ceremony, Richard, organist, played traditional wedding music and Mrs. Francis Erickson, cousin of the bride, sang "Wedding Song" by Schutzer and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white tissue tulle, designed with a basque bodice having a sash neckline and long, tight three-quarter sleeves, and a four-tiered full length skirt with a chapel sweep. Her double fingertip veil of imported silk filigree held in place by a small crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of Stephanotis, lilies-of-the-valley and forget-me-nots.

Mrs. William Allen Carter of Philadelphia, who was her sister's matron of honor, wore a ballerina length dress of powder blue chiffon, the neckline having a wide band of crushed chiffon which came over the shoulders to form short sleeves. A crownless hat having a wide blue horsehair brim completed her costume and she carried a delphinium corsage.

Dr. Alexander Doudoumopoulos, Washington, D. C., was best man for Dr. Mani and the ushers were William Carter and Captain John Robertson of the United States Army Medical Corps.

Mrs. Crossett wore a pale pink linen sheath with blue accessories and Mrs. Mani chose a dark blue flowered print, each wearing similar corsages of pink sweetheart roses circled by small sprays of blue delphinium.

Immediately following the ceremony, a very small reception was held at the bride's home. Vases of white gladioli and larkspur and a piano arrangement of blue delphinium decorated the living rooms, while white roses, white sweet peas and baby's breath were used in the dining room.

For her going-away costume the bride wore a beige linen dress and jacket, with white chiffon hat and accessories, and a white orchid with clusters of forget-me-nots.

Mrs. Mani is a graduate of National Cathedral School in Washington, Class of 1951, and had been in training at St. Luke's Hospital in New York where she received her cap on June 22nd.

Dr. Mani graduated from Columbia University in 1947, Phi Beta Kappa, and from Columbia Medical School in 1951. After internship at Bellevue Hospital, at St. Luke's and will now terminate his residency in Denver, where Dr. and Mrs. Mani will be located after their wedding trip.

Dr. Yerg will be out of town for the month of July. His office will remain open. July 2-21.

Warren High Class of 1953 Planning Reunion

Warren High School Class of 1953 will have a reunion the latter part of this summer, probably around the middle of August, with plans being worked out by an acting reunion committee, since three of the four members of the original committee are not presently in Warren.

Red House Lake, in Allegheny State Park, New York state, has been tentatively chosen as location for the gathering, because of its swimming, canoeing, softball, tennis courts, bicycling, and horseback riding facilities.

Since Red House Lake is a "first come, first served" proposition, the committee feels it is more practical for each person to bring his own picnic basket and it is the sincere belief of those in charge that this will in no way lessen the reunion spirit.

Members of the class will receive information concerning the reunion through the mail at least one month in advance of the date, it is announced.

SURPRISE GIVEN FOR ANNIVERSARIES

Corydon—Mrs. L. J. Learn was honored Friday evening with a surprise birthday gathering at the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. E. Tome, who also observed a birthday anniversary on the same date. Both mother and daughter received numerous messages and gifts, including an attractive birthday cake presented to Mrs. Learn.

Following a social hour, the evening was highlighted by two contests, Mrs. Viola Gardner sharing the honors with Mrs. L. R. Styler in the first and emerging victorious in the second. To conclude, refreshments were served by Mrs. Edna Tome and Margaret Reid.

Attending were Mrs. George Akers, Mrs. John Reid and daughter, Margaret, Mrs. L. R. Styler, Mrs. A. C. Dysart, Mrs. Lida Wilcox, Mrs. Hazel Benton, Mrs. Lottie Whyte, Mrs. Clyde LaDow, Mrs. George Black, Mrs. Marshall Gardner, Mrs. Herbert Layton, Mrs. Marvin Russ, Mrs. Jessie Bennett, Mrs. Emily Swanson, Mrs. Evelyn English, Neil J. Caldwell, Corydon; Mrs. Gerald Peck, Warren.

IRVINE AID PLANS FOR CHURCH OUTING

Ladies Aid members of Irvine Presbyterian church held their June meeting at the home of Mrs. Geressa Mills. The president, Mrs. Clara Huling, led the devotional period, during which hymns were sung and the scripture read, followed by the Lord's Prayer.

During the business session, plans were made for a church picnic at Wilder Field at 6:00 p. m. July 12, moving indoors to the clubhouse in case of rain. This picnic is for all members and friends of the church and a good attendance is desired. Each family is asked to bring a turkey, table service, and rolls. Coffee, cream, sugar and milk for the children will be furnished by the Ladies Aid.

The program leader, Mrs. Faye Nicklas, had a pleasing program of poems and readings appropriate to the month of June. Since June is considered the month of brides, "Tips for Married Happiness" were unscrambled by the guests, Ruth Pederson serving a perfect score. Lunch was served later in the evening, the dining table very sumptuous with a beautiful bouquet of peonies.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Palmer, Oxford, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Joyce, to Tommy F. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew T. Thompson, of Warren. Miss Palmer is a graduate of Oxford High School and is employed at the U. S. Naval Hospital at Bainbridge, Md. Mr. Thompson, Warren High graduate, is stationed at Bainbridge with the U. S. Navy. No date has been set for the wedding.

Active Figures in Auxiliary Council

Prominent in affairs of the American Legion Inter-County Council, which held its annual business meeting here Saturday afternoon, is the above group pictured in a Timesphoto by Saylor. Left to right—Mrs. Emma Kiernan, Warren, local unit president and newly-elected chaplain of the Council; Mrs. Hazel Witz, Warren, retiring department western director; Mrs. Matthew Collins, Pittsburgh, department president; Mrs. Chester Foor, Bedford, department western vice president; Mrs. Mary Ann Buerkle, retiring Council head and its delegate to the department convention in Mt. Jewett, October 27.

Chief of Center Unit 135, American Legion Auxiliary, was hostess Saturday afternoon to more than 80 members and delegates representing the 19 units of the Inter-County Council for the meeting held at the American Legion Home.

During the business session, Miss Emma E. Christian, Sheffield, was elected Council president the coming year, with the first vice president, Mrs. Pearl Kraft, Kane; second vice president, Mrs. Cecelia West, Bradford; secretary, Mrs. Ruth Ross, Mt. Jewett; treasurer, Miss Frances Hanlon, Port Allegany; chaplain, Mrs. Emma Kiernan, Warren; historian, Mrs. Lena Mourer, Youngsville; sergeant at arms, Mrs. Rebecca Turnbull, Sugar Grove; director, Mrs. Ruth Coon, Ridgway.

Also elected by delegates of the department convention from this area to serve as department western director for a two-year period was Mrs. Vada Reese, Port Allegany. Mrs. Reese will be installed at the department convention in Philadelphia July 18-21 and will succeed Mrs. Hazel Witz, Warren.

Chosen as delegate to represent Council at the convention was Mrs. Mary Ann Buerkle, Warren, current president of Council. She will function as one of the convention sergeants at arms.

Highlight of the Saturday meeting was an address by Mrs. Matthew Collins, Pittsburgh, department president of Pennsylvania.

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A FEW YEARS MAKE—Mrs. Shirley Richards and her four charming daughters, visitors at the Times-Mirror offices last week, posed for the above picture by Sparky Saylor. Now four and one-half years old, the twins, Debbie and Cindy, have changed considerably since the bottom photo was taken, when they were receiving a lot of publicity because they were New Year's babies. The Richards family is visiting friends and relatives in Youngsville and Warren, after an absence of three years. They now live right outside of Minneapolis, Minn., where the two older children, dark-haired Linda, age seven, and Kathy, six, go to school. The twins have red hair, a circumstance they firmly believe can happen only to twins, and continually forced to identify themselves, they repeat, "I'm Cindy", "I'm Debbie". They will go to kindergarten next fall. Mrs. George Kiernan, one of the trustees of the Richards fund, accompanied the family to the office. The Richards also visited Arthur Langdon, at the little bank around the corner, and nurses at Warren General Hospital where the twins were born.

Mrs. Collins spoke of the aims and accomplishments of the American Legion Auxiliary in general and of her own project in particular.

Her theme for the year has been "Somewhere Over the Rainbow", and the Pot of Gold has been used to build a greenhouse for mental patients at Leech Farm VA Hospital. Mrs. Alberta Gernon, who is coupon chairman for the local unit, is responsible for the word of praise given Warren's participation in the project. The greenhouse will serve 800 mentally disturbed veterans, most of them from the Korean conflict. During Mrs. Collins' term of office, she has solicited $17,000 through cash donations and collection of coupons from various household articles which are redeemable in cash.

Mrs. Chester Foor, of Bradford, western vice president of the department, was present to encourage the units to obtain their membership quotas before the department convention. She also urged units to keep sending their coupons for the Leech Farm project until September.

Mrs. Hazel Witz, department western director from Warren, expressed her appreciation for courtesies extended during the two years in which she has served and extended congratulations to her successor, Mrs. Reese. Mrs. Witz then presented National Citations for outstanding work in membership to the following units: Sugar Grove, Smithport, Kane, Endeavor, Mt. Jewett and Kinzua.

Mrs. Reese, who has served the Council as press and publications chairman for the past two years, presented a personal award to the Warren unit for the excellent publicity it has had in the past year. In the absence of the unit publicity chairman, Mrs. Medna Cannon, the president, Mrs. Emma Kiernan, accepted the award and expressed her appreciation to the Times-Mirror and WNAE.

Mrs. Belle Putnam, second president of the Warren unit, was present and was acknowledged by the delegation.

Mrs. Kiernan welcomed the assembly at the start of the meeting and Mrs. Everett Borg and Beth Whipple sang the national anthem. Presiding at the tea tables for the social hour which followed the meeting were Mrs. Pearl Graham, Mrs. Hazel Witz, and Mary Ann Buerkle. The dining room and meeting room were beautifully decorated by Mrs. Edith Ahlquist and Mrs. Florine Larson; refreshments chairman was Mrs. Agnes Duncan, assisted by Mrs. Ellen Valentine, Mrs. Gerda Carlson, Mrs. Ella Mauk, and Mrs. Mabel Bisson.

Next meeting of the Inter-County Council will be held at Mt. Jewett October 27, when the newly-elected officers will be installed.

GLADE UNION HOLDS MEETING

Glade WCU members held their June meeting at the home of Mrs. Caroline Peterson, 16 Schanz street, with a good attendance. The session opened with all singing "Near the Cross", and devotions, led by Lena Unangst and consisting of scripture, the 23rd Psalm, a reading on the chosen Psalm, and The Lord's Prayer in unison.

In the absence of other officials, Mrs. Unangst also conducted the business meeting, opening with a song, "Blest Be the Tie". Routine reports were given by Secretary Ethel Summerville and Treasurer Matilda Hornstrom. A nominating committee was appointed for election of officers at the next meeting and it was voted to have a picnic at the next meeting, July 27, at Crescent Park.

At the close of the business, Alice Smedley had charge of the program, and a memorial service was held for Mrs. Eleanor Richael. A song, "O That Will Be Glory", and prayer by Mrs. Unangst closed the session.

Retailers Discuss Parking and Coming Old-Fashioned Days

Parking problems and plans for Old Fashioned Bargain days were the chief topics at last night's monthly meeting of the Retailers Committee of the Chamber of Commerce held in the Cedar Room of the Blue and White Restaurant. In addition the committee welcomed a new chairman and two new members, according to a release from the Chamber office today.

Jake Levinson, of Betty Lee store, is the new Retailers Chairman, succeeding Joe E. Brown who has left the city to take a new position in Corning, N. Y. The new committeemen are Ken Washington of Service Hardware replacing Russell Hanson and Forest McAlister, manager of J. C. Penny Co., who will fill the unexpired term of Mr. Brown.

The need for more on-street parking downtown as well as off-street parking lots was discussed by the Retailers. Particular concern was shown over Second and Third avenues between Market and Liberty streets, both of which the committee felt should be widened to permit parking on both sides.

Solicitation cards for the Parking Authority campaign for funds to start a continuing parking project were distributed to the Retailers who will conduct the campaign for the Authority. First project will be improvement of the YMCA tennis court so that it can be used for parking with meters. Formal approval of this project is expected by borough council next Monday night after which the financial campaign will begin. Joe Krimmel manager of Montgomery Wards is chairman of this drive.

Chester West, manager of Murphy's, was a special guest last evening and explained plans for the Old Fashioned Bargain Days to be held in October. The committee expects this promotion to be the most successful and entertaining event in the history of local retailing.

James Blomquist gave a report of the recent Merchants Picnic which all agreed was one of the best affairs held in recent years.

RED SOX HOT IN THE THIRD; REDLEGS MAKE IT 8 OF 10

By ED WILKS

The Associated Press

It begins to look as if Ted Williams wasn't just batting the breeze the other day when he said the Boston Red Sox were ready to make their move in the American League race. The Red Sox are hot. Williams' bat is boom! — and there's a pivotal four-game series ahead with the first place New York Yankees beginning tomorrow.

The Bostonians have won five of their first seven and although they're still fourth 8½ games back, they remain within striking distance.

It was Williams, going four-for-five to hike his batting average to .374, who touched off a two-run, two-out rally in the seventh inning as the Red Sox clipped Washington 3-2 last night. The Delock, the big man in Boston's bullpen, came through with another splendid relief job, giving up only a pop-fly double over the last four frames.

In the only other AL game scheduled, the second place Chicago White Sox scored seven unearned runs and back into a 9-2 victory over Detroit, trimming the Yankees' lead to 3½ games. If the Red Sox can stay hot, they could turn the AL flag chase into a race every bit as hectic as the National League scramble. Cincinnati's Redlegs lead the NL at the moment, having knocked Milwaukee's Braves out of the lead with a 2-1 decision last night. It was their eighth victory in 10 games.

The New York Giants beat third place Brooklyn 5-2 and the Chicago Cubs beat fourth place St. Louis 6-3 in the only other game scheduled.

Gus Bell, one of the Redlegs' five All-Star starters, singled home the winning run in the third inning and set up a first-inning run with a single as Cincinnati beat Warren Spahn and ended the Braves' 12-day hold on the lead. Johnny Klippstein gave up eight hits but the only damaging blow was Bobby Thomson's 11th homer in the second inning. It was Klippstein's seventh victory, Spahn's sixth defeat.

Willie May and Bill Saini hit back-to-back homers for a 3-0 New York lead in the third for the Giants, who got a seventh-inning, six-hit performance from started Al Worthington before he tired. Ken Lehman was the loser. Gil Hodges was behind the plate for the Dodgers in the last two innings after they lost their regular backstops.

Pug Who Fought Here 30 Years Ago Collapses

Buffalo, N. Y. (AP)—Jimmy Slattery, former light-heavyweight boxing champion, collapsed in a downtown drugstore last night.

The 54-year-old ex-boxer was reported in fair condition in Columbus Hospital.

Oldtime fight fans from this area will remember that Slattery fought here about 30 years ago in the Armory. At that time he numbered several local persons among his acquaintances.

Slattery won the National Boxing Association title from Maxie Rosenbloom in August, 1927, and lost it to Tommy Loughran in December of the same year.

Certified Leads City Softball League At the First Half

Certified Electric, with a record of ten wins and a single loss, was leading the City Softball League this week at the close of the first half of play.

Nicks Restaurant was in second place with an 8-3 record and Jones Chevrolet stood at third with a 7-3 string.

The New Process Company nine, which has been plagued by a player shortage during the entire first half of the season, found themselves in the cellar via the forfeit route, with a list of no wins in a dozen listed contests.

A meeting is scheduled this Thursday at 8:30 p. m. in the YMCA to iron out the NPC difficulties and it is expected some reorganization will take place.

Managers are also reminded at the meeting that second half scheduling will be handled at the meeting and the player rosters will be revamped, if desired.

Standings at the end of the first half of City Softball League play are as follows:

Nicks Restaurant	8	3	.727

Tebbet's Says Not to Get Caught in NL Accordion

Cincinnati (AP) — Birnie Tebbetts says the National League pennant race can become like an accordion and he adds, "I don't want to get caught in the middle of it."

His comment came last night just after his Cincinnati Redlegs had gone back into first place for a third time this season with a 2-1 victory over the previous loop leading Milwaukee Braves.

Here is what he said:

"The best club doesn't have to win this one. If one club jells with everything, that's it. Unless they all jell too" and that's where he brought in the accordion angle.

Calling Milwaukee "the toughest," Tebbetts said, "they got five pitchers and if they all turn over twice they've got a ten-game winning streak."

Then he added that Brooklyn has "the equalizer" in reliever Clem Labine.

The St. Louis Cardinals — "they'll be terrific if they get pitching," Tebbetts said.

"There are no more patsies," he said. He called the pitching of Chicago and New York "brilliant" but spotty. He said Philadelphia had the most "underrated" pitching staff in the league. And of course, everyone knows the trouble Pittsburgh already has caused to the front runners.

Birdie mopped his brow and said, "Any manager who doesn't take a vacation after this race needs the money."

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By The Associated Press

Pitching — Johnny Klippstein, Redlegs, knocked off the Braves 2-1 with an eight-hitter and struck out six to host Cincinnati into National League lead.

FIVE REDS AND A PIRATE—Getting the feel of the wood are the five Cincinnati Redlegs and the lone Pittsburgh Pirate named to the starting lineup for the National League in the All-Star game to be played in Washington July 10. Cincinnati has the distinction of being the first team to have five players named to the starting lineup. The Heat Loosened Me Up' Says Joey Giardello

New York, July 2 (AP)—It was sweltering 100 degrees under the lights at St. Nicholas Arena last night but Joey Giardello says it "felt great."

"The heat helped a lot," said the former top-ranking middleweight contender from Philadelphia after he knocked out Tony Baldoni of Wilkes Barre, Pa., in 2:46 of the first round of a telecast fight.

A flashing left hook and right hand combination to the jaw flattened the 24-year-old ex-Maune.

It took about five minutes before Tony could leave the ring under his own power.

"The heat loosened me up," said Giardello.

"I've been training in a gym with the windows closed and the heat must agree with me. I think I'm ready now to fight any of the ranking middleweights."

The victory, Giardello's 59th against 13 losses, ended Joey's losing streak of two, both to Charlie Cotton of Toledo.

"Those fights with Cotton helped, too," added Joey. "He hustled me good and gave me two great workouts. That was better than a month in the gym. I'm ready to roll now." It was the third knock-out for Baldoni in a service-interrupted career of 22 fights. His record is 17-4-1.

Giardello weighed 150½ and looked in perfect condition for the first time in six months. Baldoni weighed 168½. Giardello was a 14-5 favorite.

'Big Money' Talking For Detroit Tiger Franchise

Detroit, (AP)—Big money—a total presumably into the many millions of dollars—started "talking" for the record today in the Detroit Tiger ball club's potential sale.

Paul P. Porter To Be On Hand for His Day at CVCC

It will be good news to the entrants as well as the galleryites who will be at Coneywango Valley Country Club on July 15th for Paul Porter Day that the young pro in whose honor the 18-hole medal tournament will be held will be on hand to watch the proceedings.

Porter was discharged from Kitching Hospital last week and is convalescing at his home on the Warren-Jamestown Road from injuries received in a car crash last month. He is now able to be about a little although suffering acute discomfort from multiple fractures of his jaw. However, he will be at the first tee to greet his many friends among the pros and amateurs of the tri-state area who will swing away in the tournament in Porter's honor.

It is expected that many local people will join Coneywango Valley members, spectators from nearby clubs and Warren golfing enthusiasts in the gallery. A number of Warren golfers are also expected to be in the list of entrants with 15 to 20 country club amateurs. Entries are now being accepted by committee members.

Considerable interest has been evidenced in seeing such professionals as Lionel Hebert, Sam Urzetta, Lew Worsham, "Babe" Urzetta and Tony Lyons along with many other leading pros from the area. It is hoped that Freddie Paine, formerly assistant pro at Coneywango Valley, will also be in attendance. Paine's amateur status was restored three years ago, after which he won the state amateur title, and he has said he would be here if eliminated from another tournament in which he is playing that weekend.

One of the first tri-state pros to enter is Lionel Calloway, of Maplehurst, a veteran tutor and originator of the famous Calloway handicapping system. Four or five top Maplehurst amateurs will accompany their pro to Warren and enter the Simon-pure division.

Tim Creal, perennial club champion at Coneywango Valley, will lead the local club's amateurs into the Paul Porter Tournament. Others already entered from the low handicap ranks are: Pete Juliano who lost out to Creal in the semifinals in 1955; Dr. Wallace Sedwick, another semi-finalist; Bill Rice, 1955 runner-up to Creal; "Skip" Morine, Chuck Blackman, Bob Walsh, Phil Pritchard, Johnny Carter, all of whom were in the championship flight last year and will soon be squaring off for the 1956 title chase. It is hoped that Jack Blair, who returned to the links this year after an absence of several seasons and who is booming-tee shots in the Creal-Sedwick-Morine-Blackman class, will also be a tournament entrant. The honor of filling out the first entry blank went to Harry Barley, the Coneywango Township squire.

Several Moon Brook amateurs will enter, and Gerry Lynch, of Chautauqua, is another certainty. Larry Dana, of Bradford and Joe Henne, of Titusville, will doubtless also be among the contestants.

Add to these top-ranking visiting amateurs the leading pros of the section and such men as the Urzetta and Worsham, and Warrenites are assured a big day of golf on the Coneywango Valley layout on July 15th.

Donations from the gallery will be accepted on tournament day, and it is not anticipated that pre-tournament gallery badges will be distributed.

Souchak Qualifies For British Open With 146

Hoylelake, England—Mighty Mike Souchak had a 78 yesterday over the longer, more difficult Hoylelake course. Today's score gave him a 36-hole total of 146, well inside the qualifying limit.

The 100 low scorers at the end of the 36 holes will go into the 72-hole tournament proper starting tomorrow, with all qualifying scores wiped out.

Souchak seemed all set for a 67 but missed an 18 inch putt on the last green. The previous record of 69 for the 6,425-yard Wallacey course was set yesterday by Floy Van Donck of Belgium and Charlie Ward of England.

Souchak rates the Hoylelake links as one of the three greatest tests of golf in the world.

The 25-year-old Berwick, Pa., professional should know. He scrambled around it in 78 yesterday during the first day's qualifying play for the British Open. He was 10 strokes behind South African Gary Player who had a record 68.

"That's some golf course," said the 220-pounder who turned down a professional offer to concentrate on golf. "The last five holes on this killing course are out of this world."

RACE RESULTS IN DEATH
It was a race on a blacktop in the Bully Hill area of Franklin Saturday evening which ended disastrously, officers said. The driver of the car, William Dailey of Franklin, was critically injured when his car went out of control on Belmar Road, struck a motorcycle and careened into thick brush beside the road. The driver's side of the car struck oil well casing uprights that had been used to carry rod-holes across the road. Also injured in the crash were James Caralla of Franklin, RD 1, operator of the motorcycle; and his daughter, Rowen Lee Caralla, 12. Dailey was reported racing with another car driven by his brother-in-law, Alfred Ritchey, also of Franklin.

Clarendon Water Co. Seeks 1st in 42 Years
The Clarendon Water Company has sent postal cards to all its patrons stating that the company is filing with the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission a request to boost all flat rate service charges. It is pointed out that the present company rates were established on January 1, 1914, or more than 42 years ago. The company calls the present antiquated rates "grossly inadequate to meet the inflated costs of the present day economy."

Y.", famous veterinarian with Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus which comes to Warren's airport on the West Side, July 9th. Dr. Henderson, and his associate Dr. William Y. Higgins, keep the hundreds of strange animals in the vast Ringling menagerie, happy, healthy and emotionally adjusted.
